

TCX INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT

As manager of The Currency Exchange Fund (TCX or the Fund)

Job title:	Student Analyst, Investor Relations and Communications
Reporting line:	Reports to SVP, Strategy & Capital Mobilization (Thought Leadership) and VP, Strategy & Capital Mobilization (Capital Raising & Investor Relations)
Background:	TCX is an impact-focused fund working in the space of development finance. TCX's mission is to protect borrowers in developing countries by taking on currency risk that comes with hard currency financing. The Fund offers financial instruments to hedge currency risk exposure (cross-currency swaps and forwards) when there are no or insufficient commercial alternatives available. Since its inception in 2007, TCX has de-risked over USD 21 billion in development lending. The Fund is going through an exciting expansion phase as the demand for currency risk protection is growing, the investor base is broadening, and innovative activities are developed. The Fund is managed by an international team based in Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The Student Analyst will play a key role in supporting the investor relations function in maintaining strong relationships with existing investors and supporting fundraising activities. The Analyst will also support the delivery of communications and the professionalization of TCX's media presence. The role sits within TCX's Office of Strategy & Capital Mobilization (SCM), working most closely with the Capital Raising & Investor Relations team as well as Thought Leadership team, but supporting communications across the organization.

Primary responsibilities:

Investor Relations

- Support the preparation of templates, investor presentations, fundraising materials and other investor presentations.
- Assist in the collection of financial, portfolio, impact, and operational data for investor reporting and due diligence requests.
- Maintain and update the investor relationship management system and contact lists to ensure information is accurate and current.
- Conduct background research on market trends, stakeholder institutions and developments in development finance.

- Assist in organizing investor engagement activities, including logistics and materials.

Communications

- Design, package, and amplify external content produced with the Thought Leadership team, including policy and advocacy papers, press releases, newsletters, and event materials.
- Lead day-to-day management of TCX's LinkedIn presence, including drafting, scheduling, and publishing posts and tracking engagement.
- Help manage and deliver TCX media content, including videos, podcasts, and other formats, from planning through to publication.
- Keep the TCX website current by publishing news, updating pages, and maintaining content so it reflects the organization's latest work.
- Research and pursue media opportunities, including relevant outlets, podcasts, and speaking and op-ed openings, and support outreach and delivery.
- Build and maintain automations that reduce manual work in the communications workflow, for example content pipelines, media monitoring alerts, distribution lists, reporting dashboards, and AI-assisted drafting and research tools.
- Support coordinated communications with partners and counterparties on noteworthy developments, including joint announcements and shared content.

QUALIFICATIONS

Background and experience:

- Bachelor's or Master's student in international relations, business administration, communications, economics, finance, data science, or related field.
- Demonstrable affinity for and interest within development finance and/or financial markets.
- Comfortable using AI tools such as Claude and ChatGPT, and reporting tools such as Microsoft Excel and PowerPoint to work more efficiently.
- Experience in communications, media, or content production (e.g. student journalism, social media, a prior comms internship) is an advantage but not required.

Competencies:

- Strong attention to detail and organizational skills.
- Good written and verbal communication in English.

- Familiarity with marketing tools, such as video and audio editing (e.g. Premiere, Final Cut, CapCut, Descript, Audacity), document and visual design (e.g. Canva, InDesign, PowerPoint, Claude Design), email marketing (e.g. Mailchimp), and website CMS platforms (e.g. WordPress, Payload). The student analyst is not expected to have used all these tools, but experience with any will be considered a plus.
- Ability to work independently and manage follow-ups effectively.
- An eye for clear, well-presented content across formats and channels.

Languages: Fluent in English.

About TCX

Name: TCX Investment Management Company B.V. (TIM)

www.tcxfund.com

Description: TIM is the exclusive investment manager of The Currency Exchange Fund N.V.

TCX is a development finance initiative focusing on the provision of long-term currency risk solutions for emerging and frontier markets. TCX offers hedging instruments to development finance institutions, multilateral development banks and other international investors that provide long-term financing to borrowers in developing countries. TCX was established in 2007 and currently runs a global swaps portfolio of over USD 10 billion (gross notional value), with the ambition to grow significantly over the next 5 years.

TCX operates a sustainable double bottom line, contributing to development impact whilst generating a modest positive return. The Fund has a capital base of around USD 2.1 billion provided by 20+ development finance institutions, microfinance investors and governments. These include IFC, EIB, EBRD, KfW, AfDB and FMO as well as the governments of the Netherlands, Germany, Switzerland, France and the UK. TCX is also supported by the European Commission.

TIM currently has about 50 employees, including a 4-person Executive Committee (CEO, CIO, COO, CRO). The culture is informal, collaborative, and highly diverse. The team adheres to and is driven by five organizational values: one team, respect, drive, care and trust.

We offer a competitive package and a diverse, supportive work environment.

Candidates must be based in the Netherlands and currently in their final year of studies .
